

I protest that companies such as Sinclair Broadcast Group are using the public airwaves to broadcast one-sided political programming. Their stations should be allowed to broadcast unbiased, newsworthy content, based on the historic foundation of good journalism. My concern is that, as corporate giants take over large blocks of local stations, more and more biased reporting will occur.

Helen E. Elkins
Heath, TX 75032